THIRTY-SIXTH YEAR

LIMA, OHIO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1921

PRICE THREE CENTS

TEXT BOOKS COST MORE; SAVE 'EM

Maybe Sister Sue Can Use Willie's Net Year.

INCREASE SLIGHT THIS YEAR

Old Contract Protects Parents of Lima Youth.

Did little Willie use a Hick's Champion speller last year in the fourth grade of school? If he did, don't let him throw it away, but save it for his little sister, Mary, who will need it next year and you will be money ahead, for a speller costs twice as much this year as it did when you bought it for Willie.

The speller is no exception, as several textbooks have increased in price this year in Lima. The increase followed the expiration of a five-year contract with the publishers last May, according to Superintendent of Schools J. E. Collins.

Collins stated that Lima is in a better position than many other Ohio cities, as no changes were made in text books this year and books were bought for this year from one company under the old five-year contract.

HIGHER NEXT YEAR

Next year this company will be changing the new higher prices and it will cost parents more for school books than it does now. A great number of the books used in the first eight grades are bought from the same company, that has not changed its prices this year.

The price of books has been steadily mounting during the past five years, but under the contract, school officials were able to buy and pass on the books to the students at the same prices.

The total cost of buying books for a student for the complete elementary course has advanced only $1.47 this year.

All the books needed in the first eight grades could be bought last year for $16.16. This year they cost $17.63. This is taking just the necessary books and considering that the students who can use a book for more than one grade would use the same book and not buy another one of the same kind.

Some slight decreases are made this year in the price of supplies, making the total cost of supplies and books in the seventh and eighth grades cheaper this year than last.

SOME OF THE INCREASES

Some of the books that have made the biggest increases this year are: Third Aldine Reader, last year, 43 cents; this year, 50 cents; Webster's Spelling Book, last year, 43 cents; this year, 50 cents; Brigham and McFarlane's First Geography, last year, 60 cents; this year 93 cents; Webster's Dictionary to be used in the fifth grade, last year 74 cents; this year, 99 cents; Brigham and McFarlane's Second Geography to be used in the sixth grade, last year, $1.03; this year $1.49.

A number of other books as The Joy Road to Reading and Pearson's and Kirschner's Essentials of Language to be used in the fourth grade, the seventh grade grammar, community civics and the eighth grade arithmetic will probably increase in price next year. These books were bought for this year under the old five-year contract.

COMPARISON OF COSTS

A comparison of the cost of the text books and books necessary for the school year in the elementary grades shows only a slight increase this year. First grade supplies and books last year cost $1.16, this year $1.27; second grade, last year, 74 cents, this year, 91 cents; third grade, last year, $1.35; this year, $1.63; fourth grade, last year $2.46, this year, $3.01; fifth grade, last year, $1.55, this year $1.92; sixth grade, last year, $2.75, this year $3.17; seventh grade, last year, $3.82, this year $3.70; eighth grade, last year, $2.22, this year, $2.01.

It is difficult to estimate the increase in price in the high school text books and books for different years, but the increase, however, is limited at practically the same as in the grade schools.

WIFE IS BARRED

Can't Witness Electrocution of Husband at Columbus.

COLUMBUS. — (By Associated Press.)—The wife of Sylvester Youngstown, negro, was not permitted to witness his electrocution at Ohio penitentiary early Friday morning, Warden P. E. Thomas announced today. Mrs. Brown had been asked if she was allowed to witness the execution of her husband, who is charged with the murder of Patman Alexander, a white man, at Youngstown last May. In making announcement, Warden Thomas stated that since 1897, there has been a rule against allowing women witness electrocutions and he sees no reason for breaking it at this time.

As Brown confessed to the murder, she believed that there is little chance of her receiving a stay of execution or reprieve.

At the suggestion of Joseph Mack, her "death row" prisoner awaiting execution for slaying his mother, Brown, who was provided with a whole watermelon at his last meal, in addition to the usual kitchen dinner or whatever he has for his last repast.

WOMEN IN SCHOOL BOARD RACE COMPANIES REACH AN AGREEMENT

RESTAURANT INSPECTION IS OUGHT BY HEALTH; PARTONS FILE COMPLAINT

An ordinance giving the city the right to inspect conditions in restaurants and bakeries is advocated by Dr. J. B. Poling, health commissioner. Numerous complaints are received by the health officer concerning Lima restaurants, he says, but it is very difficult to bring action.

One of the most numerous complaints made by patrons is that there are too many flies in the eating houses. "You have to shoot 'em off with one hand," one man told Dr. Poling, "while you eat with the other. When you eat, the flies eat with you."

Dr. Poling wants an ordinance drawn along lines of the one put in effect in Akron, which he states gives the city effective control.

HOPES FOR IRISH PEACE REVIVED

Last British Note Proposes Further Negotiations.

NEW CONFERENCE PLANNED

Sinn Feiners Pleased With The Turn of Affairs.

LONDON. — (By United Press.)—Preparations for a conference with Irish plenipotentiaries were under way at Liverpool today.

A cabinet committee of ten was ready to receive the Sinn Fein delegation, if it accepted the British proposal for further conferences contained in the note of yesterday. It was believed here and by ministers at Liverpool that Sinn Fein would accept.

The text of the cabinet reply to President De Valera's rejection of its offer and insistence upon self-determination was to be published today.

It sets a date for the further conferences on the Irish situation asked for by De Valera and insists upon the promise that Ireland must remain within the empire. To this De Valera has never disagreed and it was felt here that the proposed conference, if Ireland accepts, may lead to peace.

SINN FEIN HOPEFUL

DUBLIN. — (By Associated Press.)—Signs of confidence and good spirits were again apparent among the Sinn Fein leaders at the Mansion House here this morning. They have received knowledge of the contents of Prime Minister Lloyd George's reply to Eamon De Valera, which will be made public here this evening at the same time that the note is given out by the British. So far as could be judged the Irish leaders were not disturbed by Mr. Lloyd George's communication.

DOOR KEPT OPEN

LONDON. — (By Associated Press.)—The message sent to Irish republican leaders following the meeting of the British cabinet at Inverness yesterday was an invitation to Eamon De Valera to send delegates to a conference to be held on September 20, on condition that Ireland should remain within the empire, were printed by several newspapers here today. Those newspapers, which comment editorially upon the message, express satisfaction that the door to peace has been left open.

"The government has given the Sinn Fein leader another chance to retrieve the prospect which his blunders, and those of the Daily Breeze, had so gravely compromised," said the Chronicle, while the Daily Telegraph remarked:

"If this indication of the contents of the cabinet letter accurately reflects the attitude of the British government, Lord George has followed his purpose in still maintaining, despite the daily stream of provocative and injurious language which appears to be thought wise and timely by Sinn Fein leaders."

The Daily Mail considered the invitation to a conference "business-like" and declared it pointed to the finality that "Ireland is offered the real thing and the best thing the British empire has to give."

MINE WAR PROBED

40 Warrants Issued For Arrest of Accused Rioters.

LOGAN, W. VA. — (By Associated Press.)—Some forty warrants have been issued here for the arrest of men who last week are alleged to have formed part of the armed forces whose march on Logan-co brought federal troops into the West Virginia coal fields. The warrants were issued by Magistrate Gore at the instance of John Chaffin, prosecuting attorney of Logan-co.

A special grand jury has been summoned for next Wednesday, when, according to county officials, the whole question of the disturbances in the eastern part of Logan-co will be investigated. Witnesses are being summoned, and it was stated, an exhaustive inquiry will be made.

CURTIN NAMED TO PASS ON LOANS

High Honor Paid Lima Banker By Federal Agency.

BUSINESS WILL BE AIDED

Easier Money Expected to Result In Lima.

Prospect for easier money for both farmers and commercial business were seen by Lima bankers Thursday in the preparations of the War Finance Corporation to begin functioning under an amendment to the act, providing for greater credit to farmers.

Emmett R. Curtin, president of the Lima Trust Co., was appointed Thursday by Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the corporation, as a member of the committee for this district to set up an agency to pass on applications of banks for advances under the act, which became effective two weeks ago.

The appointment of Curtin is a distinct honor inasmuch as his committee will have direct control of the millions of dollars the government will make available for this district to help farmers out of their present financial troubles.

POSITION IS HONORARY

He wired acceptance of the place, which is honorary, no salary being attached.

The amendment to the act providing for the corporation, built up to finance the war, provides for its continuation to aid farmers. Banks, which have loaned money to farmers to finance their business, may secure assistance from the federal fund, thus providing relief from the tightness of money. The fund will be revolving and is intended to be a big benefit in the end to the consumer.

In announcing the appointment of Curtin to the committee for this district, officials of the Lima Trust Co., said the operation of the plan here will mean much to farmers and business men in general. They pointed out that banks have loaned much money to farmers, thus causing a shortage for other lines of business. With the banks being able to secure relief, they will be able to grant more loans to farmers as well as commercial concerns.

AID TO ALL BUSINESS

"It will mean much with the general resumption of business," said Howard P. Dean, vice president. "It will mean more money, more plentiful and local men will be able to go ahead on a better basis and with local money."

Congressman John L. Cable said Thursday that a great deal is expected from the operation of this system. He said it will mean that farm products can be exported to Europe and that it will bring the farmers out of their difficulties in a short time.

FORD IS ASKED TO BUY RAILROAD

Sought As Purchaser of Missouri and North Kansas.

DETROIT. — (By Associated Press.)—Henry Ford has been invited to purchase the defunct Missouri and North Kansas railroad when the railroad is sold at public auction next month according to newspaper reports here today.

Joseph P. Riley, representing the Joplin, Mo., Chamber of Commerce, who with other representatives of the territory are in Detroit conferring with the Ford interests.

Mr. Ford was invited to appear at the sale to be held under jurisdiction of the federal court at Joplin and to compete with other bidders for the railroad property. Mr. Riley said. The delegation yesterday conferred at length with E. G. Lichbold, general auditor of the Ohio State company, said his company's assets were $30,481,929, leaving approximately $50,000,000 as the value of assets of the Ohio Bell company.

Mr. Turner also stated that the two companies serve more than 4,000,000 of the total population of the state, the Ohio Bell Company having 203,000 stations and the Ohio State company 143,000. The two companies operate in over 70 counties, serving all the large counties except Hamilton.

GIRL, DIVORCED, STAYS SINGLE ONLY FIVE DAYS

Ernest M. Botkin, justice of the peace, was called to the probate office, Thursday morning, to officiate at the marriage of John Ritter, 55, assistant foreman, and Mrs. Stella Caroline Edgington, 13, housekeeper for Ritter. Both reside at 1038 Reese-ave.

Altho but 13 years old, the bride has been previously married and last Saturday was divorced. Her first husband was William Harford, a minor less than 21 years of age. The decree was granted on the grounds of neglect.

TWO FIGHT TO DEATH IN PISTOL BATTLE

CINCINNATI. — Breast to breast, Anthony Meerpohl, saloon keeper, and John Brady, former city patrolman, fought a pistol battle in Meerpohl's saloon today and both men are dying.

The fight, according to the police, was the result of a free-for-all battle in the saloon last night.

Meerpohl charges that Brady was the leader of the Wednesday night trouble and he had ordered him to stay away from the place. When the saloon keeper opened his place today Brady walked in and the shooting began.

FIGHT ON PHONE MERGER OPENS

Hearing Before Ohio Utilities Commission Starts.

MANY QUESTIONS RAISED

Some Cities and Labor Oppose Consolidation.

COLUMBUS. — (By Associated Press.)—The Ohio Bell Telephone Company and the Ohio State Telephone Company are prepared to submit a large mass of evidence showing that the people of the state favor consolidation of the two companies, attorneys at the opening of the hearing on the proposed consolidation before the state public utilities commission and a representative of the interstate commerce commission.

A motion filed by City Attorney Leach of Columbus to dismiss the proceeding insofar as the proposed consolidation would affect this city will not be argued until all the evidence has been submitted touching on the general proposition of consolidation.

QUESTIONS RAISED

Assistant Law Director John Marshall of Cleveland, while entering no formal objection to the consolidation, indicated that the city of Cleveland might fight the proposition. He declared the city had not been furnished copies of the proposed proceedings and on cross-examination of C. L. McLaughlin, secretary of the Ohio Bell Company, brought out that all but eleven of the 250,000 shares of stock of the company are owned by the American Telegraph and Telephone Company. The eleven shares, he developed are owned by the directors of the company and must be sold back to the company when they sever their connection with it. Marshall said this showed that the entire stock of the Ohio Bell Company is owned by the A. T. & T. company.

City Solicitor Heggelberger of Akron, said Akron city council had gone on record as favoring a consolidation of the two companies, but that he did not yet know whether the method proposed was satisfactory.

LABOR REPRESENTED

Attorney McElhenny of Zanesville, representing the Ohio Federation of Labor which has entered objection to the consolidation, was present and reserved the right to cross-examine witnesses.

Ray W. Clark, attorney-examiner of the interstate commerce commission, sat with the Ohio commission. A similar application for consolidation has been filed with the federal commission and evidence submitted at the present hearing will be used in connection with the federal commission's investigation.

Attorney General Price was present representing Governor Davis.

Attorney Earl F. Burr of Columbus, presented the companies' proposition to the commission. They declared service would be greatly enhanced and the public benefitted through the consolidation.

Mr. Turner said the present outstanding capital stock of two companies is about $27,000,000 and that in the consolidation this would be shrunk to $25,000,000. The total value of the property involved, he said is more than $80,000,000. Of this total valuation, Chester J. Queen, general auditor of the Ohio State company, said his company's assets were $30,481,929, leaving approximately $50,000,000 as the value of assets of the Ohio Bell company.

Mr. Turner also stated that the two companies serve more than 4,000,000 of the total population of the state, the Ohio Bell Company having 203,000 stations and the Ohio State company 143,000. The two companies operate in over 70 counties, serving all the large counties except Hamilton.

Z. L. WHITE DEAD

COLUMBUS. — Z. L. White, 82 years old, prominent business man here, died early today, following a brief illness. Death was due to pneumonia. White was president of the Lumbian Building and Loan company here. He made large endowments to Ohio Wesleyan and other educational institutions in the state. Funeral services will be held Saturday.

PETITIONS ARE IN CIRCULATION

Mrs. Harry Workman and Mrs. W. B. Kirk, Candidates.

SIX SEEK TWO OPEN PLACES

G. O. P. Internal Dissension is Seen in Fight.

That the local school board tangle has become further complicated was disclosed Wednesday night when petitions were in circulation for the nomination of Mrs. Helen Workman, wife of Harry Workman, 334 S. Cole-st and Mrs. M. Kirk, 123 Riverside, wife of W. E. Kirk, of the law firm of Halfhill, Quail & Kirk.

Both names appear on the same petitions, it is stated, and the papers were still in circulation on Thursday, it was stated, for the purpose of securing a sufficient number of signatures for filing before the flag goes down at the board of elections office tonight in the final hours for the receiving of names of candidates to go on the election ticket in November.

REPORT CONFIRMED

That Mrs. Kirk is absent from the city, but in a telephone communication, Mrs. Workman confirmed the information that herself and Mrs. Kirk are to be certified as independent candidates for members of the school board.

"I understand that petitions are being circulated," Mrs. Workman said, "bearing my name and that of Mrs. Kirk, but I do not know who is engaged in assembling signatures. In fact," Mrs. Workman said, "I know very little about it, but expect to have more information later in the afternoon."

A petition made its appearance at the Lima House Wednesday night, where members of the Scientific church assembled for services, it is stated, and was signed by numerous persons before the church services opened.

SIX CANDIDATES NOW

Homer Hughes and Ralph W. Austin were nominated in the primary election on August 9, over two other candidates. Both are Republicans. Later, petitions were taken out by E. B. Taylor, 742 W. Spring-st, and Rodney R. Stansbury, 226 W. O'Connor-ave. Stansbury's petition, properly signed, was filed Wednesday and that of Taylor on Thursday. These men are Democrats. They are to run as independents.

G. O. P. CONTROL SOUGHT

Located in the primary election by Republican candidates, not of their choosing, the Gale-Quail-Downing organization is believed determined that control of the school board by that wing of the G. O. P. shall not fail.

At any rate, the appearance of two prominent women of the city in the school board fight as independent candidates, making a total of six seekers, has produced a situation that is affording the politicians something to talk about.

6 AMERICANS ARE PUT TO DEATH

Included in List of 61 Executed in Russia.

RIGA. — (By Associated Press.)—Sixty-one persons have been executed by the Bolsheviks, being charged with participating in the recent Petrograd plot, according to the official list printed in the Pravda of Petrograd. Among those put to death were sixteen women, most of whom were accused of renting rooms to, or otherwise sheltering, male participants in the plot.

Others executed included Prince Constantine Tournoff, aged 29, and Prince Sergius Oukhtomsky, aged 36, the latter being a widely known sculptor. Both were accused of spying, or of sending information out of Russia.

Six on the list were described as "American spies or couriers," one of them being Professor Vladimir Tagantsky, aged 31, the alleged head of the entire Petrograd organization.

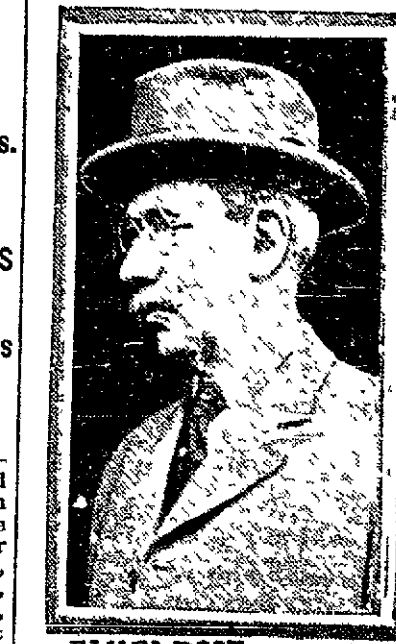

Count Sergius Schulenberg, aged 24, was executed on a charge of having aided an American courier.

WILL GERMAN FORCE IDLE AMERICANS?

Is the deluge of German-made goods, to cause factories in the United States to close by the score and cause American workmen to be thrown idle?

This is a question which is causing no little concern. It is intelligently discussed by B. C. Forbes in his article today. Every reader should not fail to read this article on the market page.

WILL ACCEPT

ROOT WILL HEAD WORLD COURT

Election To Presidency of International Tribunal Assured.

GENEVA. — (By United Press.)—Elihu Root will accept the presidency of the international court of justice, members of the league of nations were privately informed today.

His election is practically assured. The probable composition of the world court will be a representative of the United States, England, France, Italy, Japan, Russia, Germany, Holland, Sweden or Norway or Denmark, Chile and Brazil.

ROOT SILENT

WASHINGTON. — (By United Press.)—Elihu Root after a conference with President Harding today, declined to affirm or deny reports that he would accept the presidency of the international court of justice of the League of Nations.

Advised of radio dispatches that the League of Nations officials were considering drafting him for head of the international court of justice, Root was silent for a moment and then asked:

"Is there a new extradition treaty covering that?"

After the conference, Root went to the state department to talk with Secretary Hughes. He again declined to reveal the purpose of the visit.

"We talked about seabags and kinks," Root said following the visit. "He denied he discussed the disarmament conference, the German peace treaty or the international court of the League of Nations."

With the shutting off of the supply for Lima, Whappington, Colma and St. Marys, the Lima Natural Gas Co. started action to secure a resumption of service. H. O. Bentley and J. H. Goeke, attorneys for the company, accompanied by Emmett R. Curtin, president, went to Columbus Tuesday and announced that they would stay until they had the gas turned on. All are still in Columbus.

U. S. CRITICISED BY LORD CECIL

Objects To American Notes On Mandates Question.

GENEVA. — (By Associated Press.)—Charges that the "purely negative" position of the United States had been responsible for the delay in the application of mandates by the league of nations were made by Lord Robert Cecil, representative for South Africa, at today's session of the assembly of the league, which took up a general discussion of the accomplishment of that body, to date.

A flurry of interest spread over the audience as the South African delegate spoke and announced he wished to speak on mandates. Lord Cecil reviewed the whole mandate question, during which he took occasion not only to criticize the policy of the United States, but also the lack of publicity permitted by the recent meeting of the council of the league.

Regarding the note recently sent by the United States department of state, he said, that international affairs would have been better advanced had it been received earlier.

"These territories," he said, referring to the countries over which mandates were provided by the covenant of the league of nations, "must not longer be left in their present situation, deprived of a definite status or a definite government."

He said he did not want to appear to criticize the United States "but the mandates should be settled in the interest of the peoples directly interested with them and not further delayed."

BOY KILLED

CLEVELAND. — One boy is dead and another recovering from suffocation today, the result of the collapse of a roof yesterday while the boys were enlivening a cave. Raymond Hoxter, 14, was dead when taken out. Albert Thomas, 13, was rescued in a serious condition. Warren Thomas, 12, who was buried up to his waist, was pulled out near the entrance, uninjured.

Rate Will Remain Same Until Adjustment is Made.

SUPPLY NOT YET NORMAL

Ouster Action Not Yet Filed By City's Attorney.

Lima's gas supply was turned on shortly before noon Thursday.

Resumption of service came Thursday morning after representatives of the Medina and Lima gas companies had conferred all night at Columbus. An agreement was reached which will assure gas for the city as well as towns in this section using gas from the local company pending a settlement of rates by the utilities commission.

Terms of the agreement were not made known, the companies stating that the agreement is merely temporary. The city had no representatives at the conference.

There will be no change in the price charged consumers until the state utilities commission fixes rates on the appeal made some time ago by the Lima company.

Lima will continue to secure gas at 50 cents a thousand for the time being. When the commission fixes rates they will be binding upon the gas company and the city.

FIRST MEAL ON GAS

Many Lima householders were able to do a small amount of cooking on their gas stoves at noon Thursday. The pressure was very low, but is expected to increase gradually until it reaches normal some time Thursday night or Friday morning.

The pressure is explained in a statement to Mayor Burkhardt by the Medina company, which said that pressure at the wells was shut off a week ago when a company turned off the gas. It will require several hours for the pumps to get gas into all the mains at normal pressure, it was said.

All stoves, furnaces in the yard, electric grills and other appliances for cooking now can be discarded. Housewives have been greatly inconvenienced since the Medina company cut off the supply last Thursday morning without warning. In some homes there has been suffering, but the mildness of the weather has prevented general hardship.

ATTORNEYS DRAFT AGREEMENT

Counsel for the two companies were drafting the agreement between the two companies at Columbus Thursday afternoon. It was announced by counsel for the utilities commission, who met with the gas company lawyers, that differences which earlier in the week were declared to have caused friction, had been adjusted.

With the shutting off of the supply for Lima, Whappington, Colma and St. Marys, the Lima Natural Gas Co. started action to secure a resumption of service. H. O. Bentley and J. H. Goeke, attorneys for the company, accompanied by Emmett R. Curtin, president, went to Columbus Tuesday and announced that they would stay until they had the gas turned on. All are still in Columbus.

It is impossible to secure any estimate on the time before the utilities commission will pass on rates. A corps of engineers and accountants are going over the company's property and books here in order that the property may be appraised.

GARLING AT CAPITAL

Solicitor H. E. Garling, who went to Columbus Wednesday to start ouster proceedings against the local company, has not returned. It was announced late Wednesday that the attorney general had declined to bring action and that Garling probably would do so.

It was believed Thursday, altho there were no official reports to indicate his intention, that he would seek to start a suit in the Supreme court.

The reception given the solicitor's request of the attorney general that he seek to ouster the local company is indicated in dispatches from Columbus in which Attorney General Price is quoted as having declined to say that "the state of Ohio would take the most drastic action possible" if there was no gas in the Lima mains Thursday. He is quoted as saying that he was not interested in the companies' squabbles, but in securing gas for the 15,000 consumers who were sorely in need of it.

SHOWDOWN DEMANDED OF TELEPHONE COMPANIES

COLUMBUS. — While the state utilities commission was preparing to begin hearings on the application for a merger of the Ohio Bell and Ohio State Telephone companies, City Attorney Leach of Columbus this morning filed a motion with the commission asking dismissal of the application as it affects Columbus.

Leach said his action was brought in an attempt to make the telephone companies show their hands in regard to the rates they mean to charge after the consolidation.

Wesley Bowers, Amanda-ty filed for township trustee, as an independent.

A warning was sounded by A. J. Morris, clerk of the election board, Thursday, that whoever neither party puts up a nominee for an office, the office will become vacant. There has been an impression in a number of townships that if no one is nominated the old officers held over.

MEN AND BUSINESS

By RICHARD SPILLANE

ON THE ROAD — If anything, the tip evil is worse in the Middle West than the East. If you are not alert the taxi driver will overcharge you and then expect you to tip him. The waiter, of course, you must tip, no matter whether he serves you ill or well. The chambermaid neglects you in the matter of towels if you do not see her. And won't you if you do not cross the palm of the bell boy who takes your bags to your room. But, of all the graft, that of the hat check, perhaps, is the most irritating. If you eat thirty cents per diem, or more in a month than the cost of the hat. And if you neglect the girl once either by chance or design she acts as if she considered you a cheat.

Does the hotel man tip the shoe salesman who serves him when he buys shoes? He doesn't. The hotel man's wife or daughter would complain to the proprietor of a department store or specialty shop whose employees had their itchy palms out all the while for tips, yet hotel attaches act as if they were their right and privilege to exact tips.

In common honesty and decency, hotel men should run their businesses as other merchants do. No reasonable person objects to rewarding a servant for special or good service, but does object to being yanked as a bird to be plucked because he must, perforce, patronize a hotel. And he doesn't object to not getting even a "thank you" when he does tip and tips well at that.

It is idle for hotel men to say they cannot abate the evil. They grant special rights to taxi companies and receive a considerable sum annually from the taxi people. If they do not run the hat-check business, they run the shoe-shine business. They are the scum of the hotel industry. The whole thing is wrong. It is a foul growth. It doesn't fit in a democracy. A worker should receive honest and full wages. He or she shouldn't have to depend on graft. It's un-American in essence and in fact.

In some cities Chambers of Commerce are conducted on queer lines. A visitor inquired in a certain city for the secretary.

"He is on his vacation," was the reply.

"May I see his assistant?" was the next question.

"He is out at lunch," the caller was informed.

The stranger looked at the clock. It was 11:15 a. m.

"What time will he return?" was the next query.

"I don't know," was the response. "He'll be busy this afternoon. Won't you call tomorrow?"

"No," said the caller. And he didn't.

Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron

Practical Advice on How To Help Build Up Great Strength, Energy and Endurance

"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man physically and mentally weak, but it utterly robs him of his vitality. That stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, former physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. It may also transform a beautiful, well-complexioned woman into one who is irritable and nervous and who has a tendency to become a chronic sufferer from anemia, a condition which is a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes thru your system, and you are left with an old mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind.

For young in feeling, full of life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy.

But be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not metallic iron which people usually take. ## ROSEN BREAKS UP ROBBER GANG

Erie Railroad Detective Nips Auto Plot In Bud.

What is believed to have been a plot to organize a bandit gang to operate on the Dixie highway near Huntingdon, Ind., was frustrated by Sergeant J. R. Rosen, of Lima, a member of the Erie railroad detective force. Rosen arrested three youths at Bippus near Huntingdon. It developed Wednesday just what the boys' intentions were. The three boys arrested were Clyde Voelmer, Benny Seelye and Roy Frey, all of Huntingdon. Their ages range from 18 to 21 years. Seelye was shot in the shoulder while resisting arrest, according to Rosen, who returned to this city Thursday.

When arrested, Seelye is said to have had a .32 calibre automatic pistol in his possession, while Voelmer carried a .38 calibre revolver. Frey, Rosen said, had armed himself with a bearing scraper, which made an improvised dagger.

The men were arrested in the station at Bippus. All showed fight when accosted by Rosen. During the scuffle, Rosen said, his revolver, a Luger automatic, was discharged, the bullet striking Seelye in the shoulder. The man is not seriously wounded.

When taken to jail, the men were gruffed by Rosen. They are said to have confessed that they had intention to steal an automobile and hold up passing motorists on the Dixie highway near Huntingdon. They said, according to Rosen, they had attempted to steal a car, but when they found it locked, were content to steal the tools.

ILLINOIS MINERS MENACE TOWNS

800 Coal Diggers Marching On Two Small Cities.

IN CLASH WITH DEPUTIES

Citizens On Guard Against The Approaching Army.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ill. — (By United Press) — Citizens of Elizabethtown and Rosclaire were on guard today against the threatened march of 800 striking miners on the two towns.

The miners, reported massing about 12 miles from here, were reported as having decided to start their advance toward the two towns today.

The miners camped in a small valley, quit work about a year ago. They were elected from company houses and have been having clashes with mine guard deputies and strike-breakers.

All telephone wires leading to Elizabethtown and Rosclaire were cut.

Several clashes occurred between outposts of the miners camp and deputies. Deputies claim to have taken four prisoners in a small clash.

Residents here anxiously awaited arrival of representatives of Governor Small who are coming here to investigate the situation.

CITIZENS ARMED. — (By United Press) — Every man and woman in this mining town of 2,000 was armed today, awaiting an attack of miners camped nearby, reported planned for today.

The armed guards are under command of Walter Howard, town marshal. Howard declared he did not believe the miners would actually launch their attack, but said they were preparing to meet any attempt to storm the town.

Howard said there had not been a clash between striking miners and guards or deputies for two weeks. He denied reports of a clash in which deputies claimed to have taken four prisoners.

WEST VIRGINIA QUIET. — (By Associated Press) — With everything reported quiet along the Logan-Boone-co border and federal troops in complete control of the situation, attention today turned to efforts being made to determine responsibility for the disturbances along Spruce Fork Ridge, near the boundary line between the two counties, that resulted in government forces being sent into West Virginia last week.

That order had been completely restored was emphasized by arrangements made to send some of the troops back to their home stations. As soon as transportation arrives the 26th infantry will en-train for Camp Dix.

TRAINS WRECKED BY DYNAMITE

Blasts Follow Strike in Georgia—Engineer Killed.

ATLANTA, Ga. — (By United Press) — State military protection for trains and workers on the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad will be asked by officials of the road today, following a wreck near here last night, in which one man was killed, several injured and considerable property damage done.

Engineer John T. Morris, in charge of the train, was killed instantly as the locomotive left the track and turned completely over. Those injured were not reported.

Dynamite caused the wreck, according to trainmen.

The engine was blown off the tracks. It rolled several feet and turned over, pinning Engineer Morris underneath.

Efforts to dynamite A. B. & A. trains have been made several times lately, according to road officials.

Indictments were returned against Mayor J. L. Pittman of Fitzgerald, Ga., and 18 strikers on the road Monday, charging conspiracy to interfere with the operation of the A. B. & A. These were set aside by the court last yesterday, because of alleged illegality of the terms of grand jury when the presentments were made.

B. L. Bugg, former president of the railroad and now a receiver, declared early today that he would appeal to Governor Hardwick for protection of the road.

SETTLEMENT OF LIGHT FIGHT IN MARKET-ST IS BELIEVED NEAR

Settlement between the city and the W. Market-st. realty owners on the boulevard lighting dispute may be reached Friday, F. E. Harman, business agent for the five-lamp system, indicated Thursday. The city has offered the owners, a compromise, the offer coming from council. The proposal of the city is to buy the five-light standards and erect them in Faurot park. Negotiations have been under way for some time, the first overtures being made by a council member of council. Later council instructed a committee to arrange a compromise, if possible.

Before the offer can be accepted, it was stated directors of a number of firms must meet to consider. The system cost the merchants $2,000 five years ago. It is understood that the city offers to pay them about one-half their investment, to avoid litigation.

The owners joined together to fight the installation of new lights, holding that they have a valid franchise for the present system.

They also object to the contract made by Service Director Elmer McClain to pay $15 a post for wreck the system.

MAN IS TAKEN IN GUN BATTLE

Two of Trio of Alleged Whiskey Thieves Escape.

County authorities and police are searching for two men, believed to have been injured Wednesday night in a battle with authorities, four miles west of Lima, near the Elm-st road. Both are thought to have suffered injuries when shots were fired by the officers to halt their escape.

One of a trio, John Houston, 22 1107 Forest-ave, was arrested. The battle was staged in an effort to secure return of $2,000 worth of whiskey, stolen on August 30 from a vault in a repair garage at the Ohio Steel foundry. The whiskey is said to have been the property of Joseph T. Kaufman, 1107 W. High-st, secretary and treasurer of the Ohio Steel foundry, and was stored there.

The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Clarence J. Fraunfelter.

Houston will be arraigned Thursday afternoon in Justice Ernest M. Botkin's court. According to Sheriff Baxter, any one of three charges may be placed against him. They are: Carrying concealed weapons, transporting intoxicating liquor, or grand larceny.

WARNER WILL FILED. — The will of Sarah Warner, who died August 18, 1912, has been offered for probate in court. Mrs. Warner was a resident of Auglaize-ty. Date for hearing has not been set.

CORN TOO CHEAP TO SELL

Farmers Now Consider Its Use As Fuel.

EXPORTS BREAK RECORDS

In 3 Billion Crop They Make Small Hole.

(BY ALBERT APPLE)
CHICAGO — Millions of bushels of corn will be burned as fuel this winter on farms in the middle west, according to Chicago grain experts. Exports are that farmers in Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska will realize not more than 25 cents a bushel for this year's corn crop.

At 25 cents a bushel, it's cheaper to burn corn than coal.

The farmer is getting only about half as much for his corn as the Chicago grain market price, due to high freight rates.

HUGE CROP.
The 1921 corn crop will be about 3,100,000,000 bushels, according to present indications. Compared with former crops:

1921	3,100,000,000 bushels
1920	3,232,367,000 bushels
1919	2,917,450,000 bushels
1918	2,502,665,000 bushels
1917	2,965,235,000 bushels
1916	2,566,927,000 bushels
1915	2,994,792,000 bushels
1914	2,672,304,000 bushels
1913	2,446,988,000 bushels
1910	2,384,260,000 bushels

Exports of corn have been breaking all records.

In the 52 weeks up to June 30, corn exports totaled 50,616,281 bushels, against only 3,939,952 bushels the year before.

This record movement of corn to seaboard continues.

EXPORTS NEGLECTIBLE.
Some traders estimate that 45,000,000 bushels of corn have been sold for export in the last two months.

But these exports will make only a small hole in the total crop.

No. 2 mixed corn in Chicago late in July has been selling below 60 cents a bushel. The price in September, 1913, averaged about 65 cents.

Two years ago, the price was around $2 a bushel.

FORD MAY ENTER BOAT BUSINESS

Discusses Project While On Visit To Springfield.

SPRINGFIELD, O. — (By Associated Press) — Car repair shops for the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad will be erected in Springfield, Napoleon and other points along the road eventually, that road equipment may be repaired without loss of time, Henry Ford, owner of the road, announced here today.

Mr. Ford was in the city for two hours inspecting the property of the road here, after which he and his party departed for points south.

"What we are trying to do," said Mr. Ford, "is to give service. We cross every east and west railroad and we know we have a good business proposition."

A hint that Mr. Ford might enter the steamboat business was contained in his statement that "the Ohio river is navigable the year round and business can be handled to and from the south by water." The use of water transportation, he declared, "is coming back and will be developed more thoroughly in the future."

In speaking of the development of the D. T. & I. Mr. Ford said it would "take the time to build the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad up to a high standard of efficiency. The improvement will have to be worked out gradually."

SIGNATURES SECURED FOR MILK ASSOCIATION

CINCINNATI — More than half of the signatures required to establish the Tri-State Cooperative Milk Marketing Association have been obtained, it was stated today by officers of the Queen City Milk Producers' Association.

The purpose of the proposed organization is to pool milk and sell thru the association instead of individually. Those who signed up will pay $20 a cow to the organization to establish a working fund and the money will bear 6 per cent interest and also will be refunded when the plan is well established.

Milk producers in the Cincinnati distribution territory from Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana are interested in the marketing association, it is said.

MARKETING ORGANIZATION URGED AS FARMERS' AID

WASHINGTON — A market organization, absolutely free from politics, is the greatest need of the American farmer, Representative Anderson, Minnesota, chairman of the joint congressional commission of agricultural interests, declared today.

A co-operative marketing organization would increase quality, quantity and prices of farm products, he said, in characterizing as "bunk" attempts to get these results by political action.

Too many organizations are being set up along the lines of political action and instead of endeavoring to work out their own problems, occupy their time largely in passing resolutions and making recommendations to congress, Anderson said.

DORMITORY IS NOT TO BE BUILT

Children's Home Bond Issue Cannot be Increased.

The new dormitory planned for the Allen-co Children's home will not be built, at least, under the recent solicitation of bids, according to Walter W. Craig, county commissioner.

Advertisements for bidders had resulted in more than a dozen contractors submitting their figures. But before the contracts were let, commissioners sought the legal opinion of Prosecuting Attorney E. T. Lippincott as to whether they could use more than $25,000, the amount of bonds sold.

The Ora M. Green company was lowest bidder on the construction work, at $31,100. H. V. Cross was highest, at $33,000.

Commissioners were of the belief they could use the amount of $10,000 or more from the general building fund of the county, to complete the building.

Prosecuting Attorney Lippincott, ruling upon that point, said that the bond issue voted by the people was for $25,000.

"The people did not say they wanted more money used and there is an old law which prevents increasing a bond issue, submitted to the people from increase to fifty, seventy-five or 100 per cent," the prosecutor ruled.

Prosecutor Lippincott, however, declared that it might be possible to get the increase by making the heating contract a separate one. He said he did not approve of this procedure, but believed no serious objection should be raised to it.

Commissioner Craig said it was probable contracts for other parts of the construction would be let and that bids on the dormitory would be rejected and the job re-advertised. It will be kept within $25,000, he said.

WAGE DISPUTE IS SETTLED

Landis Renders Decision in Building Trades Case.

PAY CUT 10 TO 40 CENTS

Immediate Revival in Operations is Predicted.

CHICAGO. — (By United Press) — Wages of 60,000 building trades workers in Chicago were cut from 16 to 40 cents an hour, in a decision handed down by Judge K. M. Landis, arbitrator.

Forty trades were affected by the decision.

An immediate revival of business in building lines was predicted following settlement of the dispute between builders and their employees.

Elimination of restrictions whereby concerns outside of Chicago were not allowed to bid on contracts in the city will reduce building costs about 20 per cent.

TRADE PROBLEMS UP TO BANKERS

Los Angeles Convention to Take Up Business Situation

PROGRAM IS COMPLETED

American Financiers Meet in California City Oct. 3.

LOS ANGELES.—(By Associated Press.)—Local problems facing every section of the country will be taken up and discussed at a hearing on general business conditions at the American Bankers' Association convention in Los Angeles October 3 to 7 next, according to an outline of the convention program issued by the association publicity committee.

"Altho every business man," reads the outline, "recognizes that the United States can never return to its former commercial isolation, as regards world trade, few realize that it is our intersectional isolation which is doing more than any one factor to delay the return to normal business conditions."

LACK OF CO-OPERATION

"In a recent address before a representative group of bankers in New York, it was brought out that the lack of co-operation between business men, bankers and manufacturers in various sections of the country has led to the creation of local depressions which are entirely unnecessary, and could be obviated by a broad policy of intersectional co-operation. What was meant was, that each district treated its problems as purely local, whereas, as a matter of fact, they were simply a phase of national problems, and should be treated nationally."

"No body of men are in a better position from which to attack these problems, than the bankers of the country. That they realize their responsibility is evidenced by the scope of the program to come before the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association to be held in Los Angeles Oct. 3 to 7 inclusive."

LOCAL PROBLEMS

"This program contemplates the presentation to the convention of local problems facing each section of the country. The bankers, having their fingers on the industrial pulse of the country are in a position to present these purely local problems in their entirety."

"With such concrete data before the convention the bankers will have the opportunity of segregating problems of a strictly local nature from those which are merely a part of general national conditions. The conclusions to be reached at this convention are being looked forward to by business men throughout the country. It is doubtful if ever before a body of men had so fine an opportunity to accomplish such far-reaching results as this gathering of American bankers. Not only have they the opportunity of doing much toward stabilizing conditions in the United States, but such a result will have its effect on trade conditions throughout the world."

OTTO RHODA WEDS DELPHOS GIRL

Lima Manufacturer Elopes With Miss Viola Laura Mox.

A secret marriage involving the elopement of a Lima business man to Cupid's haunt in Monroe, Michigan, Labor Day, came to light Thursday with the announcement of the wedding of Otto J. Rhoda, junior member of the firm of Rhoda Bros. and of the Rhoda Body & Manufacturing company, 21 Union-st to Miss Viola Laura Mox, 21 of Delphos.

Evading friends and relatives, who were not anticipating the marriage, the couple quietly slipped away to Michigan's Gratiot Green, where they secured their license to wed and later were married there by the Rev. Renkin Crooley, pastor of the Monroe Methodist Episcopal church.

The marriage was the culmination of a short romance, which reached its climax during an automobile trip of the couple thru southern Michigan and Canada.

The bride is a prominent clubwoman of Lima and Delphos and a graduate of the Delphos High school. Rhoda is well known here and is connected with several leading fraternal and business organizations. Before entering business in Lima, he was a student in the Art Institute at Chicago.

Mrs. Mox-Rhoda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Mox, of Delphos and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoda, 633 N. Elizabeth-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhoda will reside in the groom's home at 131 S. Cole-st.

NUSICAL EVENT IS PLANNED AT SHAWNEE CLUB

WOMEN members of Shawnee Country club are planning a delightful evening of music for Sunday, when the club-house will be in gala appearance for the event. A special dinner menu will be served at six o'clock, after which the program will follow.

Lima's most talented artists have been secured for the program and there will be varied numbers, both vocal and instrumental, sufficient to delight the taste of both the musical and those not so gifted, yet appreciative.

Reservations for the dinner must be in the hands of the stewardess not later than early Saturday morning.

The grounds surrounding the club-house are most beautiful in their autumn dress and garden flowers and fall bloom will decorate the interior, casting their cheerful glow, to add to the attractiveness of the musical setting.

The drive to the club is most inviting and members and their friends, in large numbers, are asked to take advantage of the musical evening.

In case the dinner and program meets with approval by members, it is probable another like event will be given in a fortnight.

The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Clinton Seals, chairman, Mrs. Virgil Kniesly, Mrs. F. E. Gooding, Mrs. Henry Delsel, Jr., and Mrs. Homer Hughes.

Among the Lima people who attended the Knerr family reunion held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knerr, southeast of Wapakoneta, were: Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Seher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seaton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Conroy, Adam Brugner, Mr. and Mrs. Scott and daughter Leona, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knerr, Edwin and Rozetta Knerr.

Fifty members of the Queen Esther Class of the Second M. E. church gathered at the home of Miss Alma Branson, 1141 Rice-ave., Wednesday evening. Following a short business session, a program of readings and music was enjoyed, and later Miss Branson served light refreshments.

All of the girls who are to attend the "corn roast" given by the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening at the country home of Mrs. D. J. Cable, are requested to meet at the Y. W. rooms at 5:30 o'clock. They will hike out North-st to the Allentown-rd, where they will be met by autos, which will convey them to the Cable home.

Mrs. James Dunn, daughter Miss Mary Dunn and son James, Jr., have returned to their home in Chicago, after an extended visit with Mrs. Edward Cardosi (Geraldine Dunn) and Mr. and Mrs. James Duffield, W. North-st.

Miss Pauline Wemmer, W. Market-st was hostess at an informal dancing party at her home, Wednesday evening, complimenting Miss Eugenia Selby her house guest and Miss Jane Peant, a guest at the home of Mrs. Harry Wright, 1116 W. Market-st. Both Miss Peant and Miss Selby reside in Marion. Light refreshments were served during the evening. About 10 couples enjoyed Miss Wemmer's hospitality.

Mrs. Robert Southard (Mary Young) Dayton, is spending several days as the guest of Lima friends. Mrs. Southard was for several years connected with the News editorial department.

Miss Katherine Leonard, Indianapolis, has returned to her home after spending the past two weeks with her aunts, Miss Julia Leonard and Mrs. P. Canavan, N. Pierce-st.

MISS CHRISTEN'S DAILY PAGE OF CHAT AND SOCIETY EVENTS
BEADS ON CLOTH
FROCK ARE SMART

The straight line frock of tricotine or Poiret twill is still a favored model with the well dressed woman. Altho a month ago it was held that beads were passe as far as trimming on cloth frocks and suits was concerned, here we see that beads hold the same high place they have held for several seasons. It was also predicted that the straight lines would give way to something new, just what was not determined, but again we see that the straight lines persist and there is not much new on the horizon, at least in the matter of street frocks.

This lovely frock is made of Poiret twill on the popular straight lines with a narrow belt placed low and loosely at the waistline. It is most elaborately embroidered and decorated with small red nail beads, rendering it a most gorgeous and sparkling creation. The beading marks the neckline, the armholes and the bell sleeves, as well as the seams of the skirt and the front panel. Note the seven-eighths sleeves—today's most fashionable length.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Glover, Lakewood-ave, are spending several days in Indianapolis, having motored to the Indiana city.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Holmes, Lakewood-ave, have returned from a delightful trip to Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Blum, W. North-st, are on a motor trip which will include visits to Toledo, Detroit and northern cities.

Mrs. Emmet R. Curtin, Jr., W. Market-st, will entertain as her house guests for a week Miss Jane Runyan, New Brunswick, N. J. Mrs. Curtin and Miss Runyan were classmates at Bradford Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Kolter and daughter, Miss Pauline Wemmer and Henry Wemmer have returned from New York, where they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer, who sailed September 3 for Holland.

YOUNG GIRL IS AMBITIOUS

Would Become Reader or Actress—Advised
To Continue in School

Dear Miss Smart:
I AM a young girl, not yet finished with my high school course. I am anxious to become a reader, or to take some work along the theatrical line, but am financially not able to do so. I do not believe that I can even complete my high school work, but think that I should quit

YOU are to be given credit for your ambitions and the old saying, "where there's a will, there's a way," always holds good. Unless absolutely necessary, do not give up your high school studies, as they are very necessary now, as well as later if you have the opportunity of taking college work. If you should decide to take up business as you are considering, it would be at least a year before you would complete such a course and be capable of handling a good position.

Dear Miss Smart:
What is the proper time for an engagement ring? I recently became engaged to a young lady and am undecided as to the proper thing to give her.

THANK YOU
Diamond rings have for many years been considered "the" thing for engagement rings, altho any other stone is just as appropriate. Why not ask your fiancé what stone she prefers, as she may not care for a diamond as much as for some other stone.

Dear Miss Smart:
My husband has been out of work for some months and since that time has been very disagreeable in the home. He doesn't seem to care for me, or home or anything, and I've tried everything I can to awaken his interest again. Can you advise me?

ANKIOUS
The present unfortunate unemployment situation has no doubt worked on your husband's mind, thru his inability to find work. Try and be patient with him a little while longer and do not complain when he home. He doesn't seem to care for me, or home or anything, and I've tried everything I can to awaken his interest again. Can you advise me?

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Knerr and daughter Margery, Mr. and Mrs. William Duss and son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knerr, Earl, Blumer and Marion Knerr, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gohlke and children Erma and Henry; Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt and children, and Alfred Malloy.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. A. Ashbaugh have returned home after a week's vacation at Chicago.

Miss Creta Shuler has returned to her home on E. McKibben-st, after a three months' visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter Peltier, Fort Worth, Tex.

Prof. and Mrs. F. X. Laux, accompanied by Mrs. Lorenz Bailey, Mrs. Roy Gottfried and Mrs. Earl Winemiller, motored to Cleveland where they will spend a week. While there, Mr. Laux will attend the annual convention of Ohio Dancing Teachers, to be held at the Henry Oster Dancing Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hess and sons Raymond and Walter Collis, have returned home after visiting during the past week with friends in Pittsburg, Pa.

seems disagreeable, as his manner will become more natural when he again succeeds in finding work.

Dear Miss Smart:
My son only recently became engaged, and as I am well acquainted with the young woman who is to become my daughter-in-law, I am wondering if it is the man's mother who is to take the initiative?

MOTHER
It is always courteous for the older woman to take the first step. Perhaps you could arrange to give a little informal dinner some evening for the young lady and her mother, thus making them worse.

giving both families a chance to become acquainted.

Dear Miss Smart:
I have full lips and would appreciate it very much if you would tell me some way to reduce them, so they would not be so noticeable?

WORRIED
You should not worry about the shape of your lips, as they very probably are not as conspicuous as other people as they are to yourself. As they are now, they doubtless harmonize well with your other features. Informal dinner some evening for the young lady and her mother, thus making them worse.

Lifeless Hair

—and How to Care For It

Drab, lifeless and unattractive hair is due to your scalp condition. Stimulate your scalp with a tonic shampoo. Wash new life and health into your scalp as you cleanse your hair. Lura Liquid Henna Shampoo brings this tonic to you with a perfect proportion of Henna.

LURA
can be used solely as a stimulating, delightful shampoo or the lovely tones of dark or light hair may be intensified with a new light, without the smallest danger of an unnatural shade.

The length of time you allow the shampoo to remain upon your hair after your scalp is thoroughly cleansed determines the extent of the color effect.

It will not stain the hands or scalp. Full directions are on every bottle. It comes in one size only. Price $1.00.

To prove what it will do for your hair, Ideal Laboratories Company, Chicago, will send sample test bottle upon receipt of 10c in coin or stamps to cover packing and postage.

Sold by the following stores:
Thompson's Three Drug Stores
Butler's South Side Drug Store
Main and Kibby Sts.

FOR HIKE

Ere long the woods and fields will be brilliant with yellow and scarlet and the bang of fall in the air will lure you to the open road.

You'll want to be gone for hours and take food along for the ramble. Then suppose you dispense with the trouble of making sandwiches, which sometimes are dry by the time you are ready to eat; and salads which spill and soil the cake.

Take the materials and do the mixing on the spot. Put the loaf of bread uncut in the basket, accompanied by a sharp knife. You can buy prepared sandwich filling and take it along in its glass jar or take the cheese in a package.

Sandwiches of this sort are much more satisfying because they can be more substantial in design and are not tightly squeezed together.

SHOE CARE

When your shoes are wet with fall rains, don't put them close to the fire. For, as surely as they are close enough to the fire to give the characteristic odor of leather, they are being singed.

Rubber overshoes should not be worn any more than is necessary because they tend to hold the animal heat and thus injure the shoes.

If your shoes are wet, put them in a warm room, in a draught of air if possible and fill them with crumpled newspapers.

Wet shoes that have become stiff can be softened nicely with castor oil, which is quite as warm as the fingers can possibly stand. Apply it with a sponge and rub it in with the fingers.

WANTED - A HUSBAND

By SAMUEL MOPKINS ADAMS

"As soon as you left," Darcy continued, "I saw that it wouldn't fit in at all for us to be married. The servants here, probably visit between house and house. And it was bound to come out that I was at the Farmhouse and you at the Bungalow, and—well—don't you see that would look funny if we were married?"

"What Jack Remsen saw was that the girl was like the pinkiest of the breed, and when she blushed, the red came up to her ears. He thought, 'No, the way you may have to later, there's some legal formalities to be gone thru yet before we can be married.'"

"Oh, then we're still engaged?"

"Indeed, yes. Don't think you're going to get out of it so easily. The legal papers are in Montreal. So, instead of being married on the spot, as we had planned, we've had to wait and you've brought me up here, on your way to Montreal."

"Is this the genial fiction that you've handed out to your friends, the newly-weds?"

"It is."

"How did they take it?"

"Hard. Maud—that's Mrs. Lee—was going to wire Gloria Greene until I told her that Mrs. Bond, the housekeeper, is Mr. Harmon's own second cousin and therefore a fully equipped chaperon."

"Is she?" said Remsen in surprise.

"How do I know?" returned the girl innocently. "She must be. I hadn't ask her. Even so, it didn't satisfy Maud. She quite insisted on my moving over to the Cottage, to be under her eye."

"You're not going to do that?" he cried apprehensively.

"And play the goosiest kind of gooseberry? Indeed, I'm not!"

"What comes next? Am I to meet the turduvones?"

"If you don't, it will look suspicious."

"So it will. Let's get it over with, then. I'll risk a small bet that after meeting Sir Montrose Veyza once, they won't care to repeat the experience."

"What are you going to do to them?"

"Treat them to an exhibition of British hauteur and superiority."

"Hasn't that sort of thing rather one out since the war?"

"Not in the family into which you've married, my dear young lady. With the Veyzas nothing ever comes in and nothing ever goes out," he added with animation.

"You mustn't be too horrid," cried Gloria. "I don't want them to bring Mr. Marring—"

"A lemon," supplied the other.

HUGHES

135 N. Main Estab. 1890

tion. The lady telephone operator on the following morning thus phoned the reply to Miss Darcy Cole:

"This the farmhouse? That Miss Cole? I got a telegram for you, Miss Cole, an' I d' know I ken make it all out. Sounds queer t' me. Shall I get a repeat? Give it t' you first AU right, Jesusus you say. Ready? Miss Darcy Cole. The Farm, Boulder Brook. No. Don't dare trust you with the truth. You do too well with the other thing. Get that? Yes; 'a funny, ain't it? There's a funny coming. Ready? Keep it up till you hear from me by following letter. Now comes the queer part. Don't be a daisy fool. Get that? Yes; hool. Me? I don't know what a hool is. Spell it? D-a-m-p; got that? H-double o-l. Got that? Well, mebbe it is funny, but I don't get no laughter out of it. What? Oh, yes; of course. Signed Gloria. Want me to get a repeat? No. Jesusus you say. I'm satisfied if you are. But then ain't no such a word in my dictionary. I just looked it up."

"But I think I am one," reflected Darcy dreamily, "not to make Gloria release me, anyway."

Miss Darcy Cole sat on the edge of Red Rock, swinging the very smartest obtainable boots, over two hundred feet of shimmering October air. Three days before the rains had descended and the floods had come and kept on coming. Several times the visitor at the Farmhouse had ventured forth, only to be beaten back to shelter.

Each morning her neighbor of the Bungalow waded over the soaking mile, and, of course, in such weather a decent sense of hospitality compelled his hostess to keep him for luncheon and dinner.

On the afternoon of the fourth day the sun broke gloriously thru, and Darcy challenged Remsen to make the precipitous ascent to the front of Red Hill.

"This is a peak on the Siberian front," she announced. "And I'm an outpost. An aeroplane," she pointed to a whirling crowd above them, "has just signaled me—"

"Caw," said the crow. "Thank you," said Darcy and threw the bird a kiss.

"That a regiment is coming up from below. There's the advance guard."

She pointed down the sheer rock. Remsen moved across and looked over the edge. "That spider?" he inquired unimaginationally.

"He's just pretending to be a spider. But he's really a spy disguised as a spider. Now the question is, shall I drop this bomb on him?"

She held a pebble above the tolling crawler.

"War is hell," observed Remsen, lazily. "Why add to its horrors?"

"How far away it all seems!" said the girl dreamily. "Do you suppose, over there, it's beautiful and peaceful like this hillside one day, and then the next—I guess I'll let my spy spider live," she broke off, dropping her chin in her hand.

Remsen sat down at her side.

"What's your soldier man like?" he asked abruptly.

"What? Who? Inquired she startled. Darcy. "Oh, Monty!" Gloria's insufficient sketch came to her aid. "Why, he's short and round and roly-poly."

"Then I don't give a very exact imitation of him; do I?"

"Not very. And he's red and fierce looking with a stubby mustache," she added, augmenting Gloria's description.

Her companion stared. "Not what I should call particularly enthusiastic portraiture."

"Oh, but of course he's awfully nice," she made haste to amend. "Not really a bit fierce, you know, but very brave and—and" (eagerly casting about) "a lovely voice."

"What kind?"

"Barytone."

ELI MAIN WILL FINISH SEASON WITH LOCALS

HURLER IS SIGNED TO PLAY HERE

Eli Main, who pitching under the name of Pierce, a couple of years ago, hurled himself into prominence here by twirling a no-hit game for the Independents, will finish the present season with the local aggregation. This announcement was made by Manager Bernie Halloran, of the Independents. The announcement followed the receipt of a communication from Main who is pitching for the Newport News club in the Virginia league.

To those fans who have been following the destinies of the local club for the last few years, Main needs no introduction. Eli, while pitching for Lima, was attending Ohio Northern university at Ada. He hurled under the name of Pierce, and there were, perhaps, few fans who knew his real name.

WEST TO BLOOMERS

Bill Sykes, first sacker for the Bloomington club in the Three Eyes league, liked the looks of the youngster, and got him a position with the Bloomers in 1920. Main didn't have the best year in history, and he was sent down east.

This season, while a member of the Newport News club, Main's arm went bad on him. However, he was sent west, and the best of medical assistance with the result that his old souper came back in better form than ever. Since his arm has been mended, Main had hurled and won three games for his club.

HERE SEPTEMBER 25

The Virginia league, season closes September 24. Main writes Halloran he'll be here to pitch for Lima September 25.

This news should be received here by fans with a bit of rejoicing for if Main's arm is working right, we'll tell the world he's a sweet pitcher.

The Wapak teels, a team which has been traveling at an exceedingly swif clip this season is scheduled to go against the locals here Sunday. The Reds aggregation has been meeting and in the majority of instances defeating the best that this section of the state has to offer.

They are making a strong bid for the championship of Northwestern Ohio. They admit it. They even boast of it upon their club stationery.

SAYS REDS ARE STRONG

Oscar Langhorst, business manager of the team, writes to tell us that Lefty Houtz, outfielder, retains his old time pep, and has made himself solid with Wapak fans. Joe Schlein, first baseman, former member of the Western league, is another member of the Reds who has played his way into prominence in Wapak. Another veteran campaigner of minor leagues is "Lex" Lewell, former player in the Southern league, and a spit ball hurler of note.

The Wapak aggregation is clouting the pill at a .360 clip, according to Langhorst, and he expects the team to fatten its averages when it meets the Independents.

Langhorst declares that an exceedingly large delegation is expected to accompany the Reds to this Sunday.

Fritz Jones, who hurled the 16 inning scoreless tie against St. Marys Sunday will work for the locals, Halloran announced.

Experts Favor Johnston Over Champ Tilden

William T. Tilden, stands on the books as the greatest tennis player in the world.

In the last two years, the tall Philadelphian has acquired two British titles, two American titles and one French title.

Starting tomorrow in Philadelphia in the first round of the national singles championship he goes into an international tournament that carries with it an almost clean right to the world championship.

However, the critics who have been following the summer's play predict that the champion will do little more than start.

JOHNSTON IS CHOICE

William M. Johnston the fiery little Californian team mate of Tilden, in two Davis cup victories and twice American champion, is the choice of the experts for the championship.

Thru a peculiar stroke of the draw, Tilden, Johnston and Vincent Richards the youthful Fordham star are in the bottom group of the 108, American, British, Australian and Japanese stars that will compete for the title.

That means that one or two of the big three will go out early in the play.

The prophets who like to forecast results are predicting that the semi-finalists will be Johnston, William Davis, the big Californian, Dick Williams, and Watson Washburn, the Davis Cup defenders.

Major Frazer Leads In Rifle Tourney

CAMP PERRY, O.—Unofficial figures give Major W. D. Frazer, coast artillery corps, first place in the Leach cup match in the National Rifle Association contests now being shot here. Frazer has a possible of 35 on each of the 800, 900 and 1,000 yard ranges and nine additional bulls eyes on the last range. The Leach cup match will continue today.

Another event which it is expected will be ended today is the members' match on the 600 yard range. Captain W. H. Richards of New Haven, Conn., is in first place with a possible of 50 and 22 additional bulls. F. L. Gassman, Sherman, Tenn., is nearest to Richards with 20 bulls.

In the rapid fire match on the 200 yard range there are more than 230 possible scores up to last evening.

Re-entry matches on the pistol ranges are being continued daily and some high scores are being made.

The National Rifle Association of America will hold its annual meeting tonight.

CLEVELAND. — (Special.)—The Detroit Tigers outthrew the Indians here Wednesday afternoon, but the Champs managed their hits count. As a result they grabbed a close game from the Detroit gang by a 5 to 4 score.

In order to pull this victory from the well known ashes, Manager Tris Speaker was forced to send three pitchers to the well. Ray Caldwell, whose suspension, was lifted Tuesday by Speaker, finished the game for the Indians, and was in rare form. Caldwell replaced Uhle in the ninth. There were two men on bases, and Blue was at bat. Blue walked, and then Caldwell struck out Bussler and Cole in succession.

A total of 25 hits were made by the two teams. Eleven of those went for doubles.

The score: Detroit . . . 021 000 001—4 14 4 Cleveland . . . 103 010 005—11 11 1 Batteries: Middleton, Oldham and Bassler; Bagby, Uhle, Caldwell and O'Neil.

Young Bobby Is Chip of Old Block

"Bobby" Walthour, Jr.—18 years of age—is king of American amateur bicycle racers.

By anking away on his Dayton racer with 21 points in the American Amateur Championship series held in the Velodrome at Newark, N. J., Walthour copped the 1921 amateur title. Also the cream of the nation's amateur riders competed for the honor, so decisively did he outpedal them that from the start there was little doubt about who would win the crown. His nearest competitor registered only 10 points.

The new champion is the son of Bobby Walthour, Sr.—twice champion of the world, and for years the hero of bicycle fans in the United States.

Redlegs Do It

CHICAGO. — (Special.)—The old saw about not kicking a man when he's down doesn't apply in baseball. The Chicago Cubs are down, even if they're not out. And, along comes the Red aggregation and hands 'em another wallop in the "smacker." This happened Wednesday afternoon here, and the game was 5 to 2. The old contest went very sweet for nine innings at which time the score was 2 and 2. But the Herrmann crowd then jumped upon young Victor Keene, the Cubs' kid pitcher. When they finished him their total had been run up to five.

Rube Marquard went the entire route for the Reds, and held the Cubs to six hits. However, the majority of these were bunched which resulted in the two runs.

The score: Cincinnati 010 001 000 3—5 11 3 Chicago 011 000 000 0—2 6 3 Batteries: Marquard and Wingo; Keene and Killefer.

Peter Daw Winner of Stake Race

HARTFORD, Conn. — (Special.)—The 2:10, or slow class division of the Charter Oak Stake, worth $5,000, was the feature race of the Grand Circuit card at Charter Oak Park Thursday, and was won by the gray gelding Peter Daw, owned by George E. Whitney, of Burlington, Vt., and driven by Tom Murphy.

From a time standpoint it was not a great race, but it furnished an excellent contest, the finishes in each of the three heats being very close with four or five horses right together at the wire.

The track was slow, the start being delayed for an hour in order that the course could be combed into shape after the rain of last night.

SIX HORSES START

Six started in the Charter Oak, Escotillo setting the pace, but Murphy rushed Peter Daw to the front in the last few yards, nosing out the pace-maker, with Taurida and Native Chief only heads behind. Bussler was the pacemaker in the second heat, the field racing in a bunch all the way, and this time Peter Daw could not get clear in the home stretch in time to win, altho he was at the throat of Escotillo at the wire. Escotillo broke going away in the final, but held his place and made the pace. In the final drive Peter Daw, under a vigorous Murphy drive, wore his lead down and beat him a neck at the wire.

SELKA IS BEST

The Hillandale Farm mare, Selka, was easily the best in the 2:09 trot, finishing ahead in straight heats, with Bovola and Peter Pater the contenders, the latter breaking close to the wire in the first two heats. Murphy won two of the three races, leading Peter Hanley first in the event for three-year-old pacers.

The $10,000 division of the Charter Oak Stake for the fast record trotters will be raced today. The starters will be Periscope, Greyworthy, E. Colorado, Peter Coley, Charley Rex, Bonnie Del and Early Dreams.

The fast mare, Nodda, in the Hillandale Farm stable, which was expected to start in the Charter Oak today, is very sick, and little hope is entertained for her recovery.

MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY ACTIVE

WHEELS OF PRODUCTION ARE SPEEDING UP-GOSSIP OF SCREEN

(By ESTHER WAGNER.)

THE wheels of the great production machinery of the motion picture industry are beginning to turn with increased rapidity on the West Coast and the recent depression has given way to a spirit of optimism that is growing daily. The big studios of the west are again active with activities and a full force is working overtime to keep the exhibitors supplied with a steady stream of high grade productions.

The work of filming officially began on Thursday when Doris May, R-C's newest star, took her place before the camera and production got under way on her initial subject, with the working title "The Foolish Age," based upon an original story by Hunt Stromberg and adapted by Miss Violet Clarke.

Miss May will be directed by William A. Seiter, who is thoroughly familiar with her work and together they expect to develop a series of comedies of the very highest type. Mr. Seiter has served as director for a number of years and previously was associated with Thomas H. Ince. It was he who supervised the making of the M'Lean-May series, in which Doris May attained great popularity in her comedies with Douglas M'Lean.

The cast for "The Foolish Age" already has been selected and embraces a number of prominent names. Otis Harlan, who has been well known for years on the musical comedy stage as a comedian of the first water will have a prominent role in support of Miss May. Others in the cast will be Bull Montana, Hallam Cooley, "Broken Nose" Murphy, Arthur Hoyt and Lillian Worth.

As to the future of Miss May as a picture star much, of course, depends upon the quality of her first production. Therefore the utmost care has been exercised in the selection of her first starring vehicle and in the assembling of the cast. Each part was carefully analyzed and the players were picked with but one thing in mind—their fitness for the roles to which they have been assigned.

"WEDDING BELLS" WITH CONSTANCE AND HARRISON.

It's like home week to see Constance Talmadge playing with Harrison Ford again. She's a real man and varied young screen sprouts as her leading man, but he comes back to Harrison, nevertheless. And we hope she always will.

At a time when the bobbed hair question is creating such a rumpus, "Wedding Bells" is quite appropriate stuff. It's a cheery little romance which has its beginning at Palm Beach Hotel, where stays the Rosalie Wayne and, across the all and yet unknown, Reginald Carter, of THE Carter's, if you please. Reggie sees Rosalie's beautiful, arched, and forthwith falls madly in love with her. After a whirlwind courtship they are married, and are blissfully content for out a half hour, when the new bride decides she will have her hair bobbed. She plans to surprise her husband, and she certainly gets her wish for husband doesn't like it, and they quarrel bitterly. Why can't he like it? For the same reason that dozens of men don't like a shorn locks—tho' what that reason is, many of 'em don't know themselves.

ISS ETHEL CLAYTON IN A STRONG DRAMA

W EALTH, which is the Faurot's attraction to-day and Friday, is Ethel Clayton's drama. She's pretty and pathetic as Mary McLeod, with a staid and well poised personality that redeems an otherwise ordinary play.

Well, the crash came and Rosalie obtained her divorce. Reggie almost immediately comes under the clutches of another designing woman and is on the verge of taking the fatal step when his ex-wife arrives on the scene. She just couldn't bear to see another girl have him, and she came to him with lovely curls that never bloomed from using hair restorers or anything like that. But they fool young Reggie and once more he falls in love with Rosalie's beautiful hair. Of course, the end is obvious:

"Reggie, darling, coo the artful Connie, 'may I have my hair bobbed again, after we're married?' And Reggie held his fair one very close as he breathes:

"Sweetheart, yes. I love you whether you have bobbed hair or not. I'd even love you if you wore a wig!"

Which is the way with men, isn't it?

"Wedding Bells" is first-class entertainment. It has snap, action and plenty of good fun. And Connie wears some stunning costumes.

At the Regent today and for the rest of the week.

finds joy and happiness in making her own living. After their marriage, Mrs. Dornhak, her mother-in-law, persuades the couple to live with her, her plan being to break up their happiness by opposing the daughter-in-law with an atmosphere of unaccustomed luxury. Things turn out badly, of course, and the son soon comes to the realization that if he is to have a happy home, it must be one of his own making.

"DREAM STREET" CONTINUES TO CHARM FILM-GOERS

DAVID W. Griffith's "Dream Street," which is playing this week at the Sigma theatre, has created wide and favorable comment. The characters in the play were suggested by those of Thomas Purks, in his Lighthouse stories, yet they are characters that may be found in all corners of the world where romance, love and beauty hold sway. There are three leading personages in the "Dream Street" cast. They are Gypsy Fair, played by Carol Dempster; Spike McFadden and his brother Billie, as portrayed by Ralph Graves and Charles Mack, respectively.

A specially arranged musical score and a beautifully staged prologue, featuring the Dream Street Quartette, are given in addition to the picture itself.

FAUROT—"ROBINHOOD" NEXT SATURDAY, MATINEE AND NIGHT.

THE seat sale for "Robin Hood," which Ralph Dunbar will present at the Faurot next Saturday afternoon and night, is now in progress.

To lovers of beautiful music, this fine revival of America's greatest comic opera will have a direct appeal, for its inspiring music is written in Reginald De Koven's best style, and will remain in your memory as one of the most beautiful operas ever brought to the stage. A splendid cast of American artists will be heard in the piece.

THEATRE DIRECTORY

AT THE LYRIC: Owen Moore heads the cast, in "The Chicken in the Case," appearing today and for the remainder of the week at the Lyric theatre. Also a comedy attraction.

AT THE SIGMA

"Dream Street," with Carol Dempster and Ralph Graves, is the feature attraction today at the Sigma theatre.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"The White Circle," with an all-star cast, is the special attraction today only at the Majestic theatre.

CLIPPINGS:

SHORT SHAVINGS

The husband looked up from the newspaper, he was reading to say: "I see Thompson's shirt store has been burned out."

"Thompson's shirt store," said the husband. "Dear me," said his wife sympathetically, "who tore it?"

Mary came in from recess chewing gum for dear life. The teacher noticed her and said sharply: "Mary, come here and put your gum in the waste basket."

Men much in the public eye tend to develop a line of stock stories which may be used for evading leading questions. When a shipping reporter recently asked Chairman A. D. Lasker of the shipping board whether or not he would support certain proposed amendments to the La Follette act, Lasker replied: "That reminds me of Weber & Fields' act in which Field starts a bank and invites Weber to deposit his money. Weber asks: 'But suppose I want it back and the bank hasn't got it?' Field scratches his head and then demands: 'Now, how the — did you ever think of such a question?'
